

Julie & Neil

Neil and I are now focused on building our ever increasing team and customer base. At first Neil was a sceptic and had little involvement.

It all started with me wanting to contribute to the family income and needing to work spare-time around our 2 children. Then the mortgage increased and we were under threat, Neil's building company failed and we needed to earn more. The only thing that saved us was our regular Kleeneze cheque.

At £600 per month Neil was able to go part-time as a handyman and committed to Kleeneze - now our cheque is over £1,000 and rising. Everyone in Kleeneze seems to offer help, support and often friendship.

The best for Neil and I is that we have a family-run business, we help others earn an income in their spare-time, have loads of fun and we earn regular money in our spare-time.

Whatever your circumstance - We recommend you give Kleeneze a try because you have a fantastic opportunity to lose if you don't.
